FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.
Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nerve.

MR. EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co.'s great store at Braceville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."

UNCLE SAM'S TERMS

Must Be Accepted by Total or Hostilities Will Begin.

MUST GIVE UP THEIR ARMS

Only Concession Will Be Transport of Troops.

Conditions Decided Upon at Early Hours

This Morning by the President and His

Advisers—General Shafter Telegraphed

That While Total Was Willing to Surrender

and Turn Over His Arms It Must Be With the Understanding That They Were to Be Returned on Reaching the Coast of Spain—No Peace Talk at the Cabinet Meeting—General Otis and His Expedition Sails for Manila.

War Loan Bonds.

Washington, July 16.—After an extended conference with the president last night, lasting until the morning hours, at which three other members of the cabinet were present, Secretary Alger said:

"The situation is just this: The Spaniards at Santiago are prepared to surrender, but they want to carry their arms. We have determined to grant no such concession nor any concession except the generosity of this government to transport them to Spain."

Secretary Alger was asked if it was not the expectation that when it was known that no other terms would be granted the surrender would take place, and replied that such was the case. In any event no other concession would be afforded by this government.

It was after one o'clock this morning when the conference at the white house adjourned. Besides Secretary Alger there were present Secretaries Bliss and Wilson and Postmaster General Emory Smith. Adjutant-General Corbin was present during the last hour of the conference.

General Shafter will be immediately instructed to carry out the determination of the president, with whom the matter has been thoroughly discussed. Secretary Alger did not say how much time would be allowed the enemy to reach a conclusion, but it is known that the administration will make it very short and submit to no further parley with General Toral. The next move is surrender upon the terms which the United States government proposed—unconditional—or immediate attack upon the Spanish forces by the army and navy.

It will be necessary to maintain a considerable proportion of the American army in the neighborhood for some time to come. The American troops, it is believed, can be so disposed as to make themselves very comfortable in comparison with what they have undergone and by removing them into the hills just in the rear of Santiago, it is believed that the danger of an extension of the yellow fever will be reduced so far that it will no longer be cause for grave apprehension. The surgeons report the disease as a mild type that will readily yield to a change of location into higher and cooler ground.

HUGGED AND HURRAHED.

Did the Soldiers When They Were Informed of the Surrender.

Before Santiago de Cuba, July 14, via Kingston, Jamaica, July 16.—When Generals Shafter and Miles returned from the interview with General Toral at which the surrender of Santiago was agreed upon, General Shafter appointed Colonel Astor and Captain McKittick to convey the welcome tidings along the lines. Some of the officers favored celebrating the victory with bands and a noisy demonstration, but General Shafter vetoed the proposition. He said there was no occasion to humiliate the enemy, who had fought bravely.

Not even cheering was to be permitted, but before Colonel Astor and Captain McKittick could warn the soldiers the latter broke out into wild hurrahs. Some danced about, threw their hats into the air, hugged each other and congratulated themselves upon the prospect of getting out of Cuba in a few days.

General Shafter instructed the commissioners that the inside harbor entrance be immediately opened to allow Clara Barton of the Red Cross society and the supply ships to enter, and that the railroad from Sibony be opened for a similar purpose.

We are to supply the Spanish prisoners with food pending their concentration and embarkation. General Toral requested this, saying that there was very little food.

It is probable that the Spanish steamers in the harbor will be used in part for the transportation of the surrendered soldiers to Spain. The Spanish troops abandoned the entrenchments early this afternoon and went into the city.

NOTHING DEFINITE

Is Received from Shafter as to Conditions of Surrender.

Washington, July 16.—For eighteen hours yesterday no word came from either General Shafter or General Miles, although there was the keenest desire on the part of the president and cabinet advisers to learn what had been done, and particularly to know whether the actual surrender of Santiago and the Spanish troops had been carried out. When the cabinet met there was positively nothing from the front which would serve as a guide for the deliberations.

It was thought that the cable had been interrupted, but on inquiry of General Greeley, chief signal officer, he gave assurances that the cable was intact. Thereupon Secretary Alger sent a dispatch asking for the situation up to the latest moment, and particularly inquiring as to how far the surrender had proceeded. No answer came while the cabinet was in session.

In the meantime, General Greeley had cabled and he was the first official to hear from the front. A dispatch from Lieutenant Jones, military censor at Playa del Este, reported that the message from the secretary of war to General Shafter was only six minutes in passage from Washington to Playa. Late in the afternoon dispatches from General Miles and General Shafter began to arrive in response to Secretary Alger's rather imperative request. They were not given out in full, but such portions as were made public showed that the negotiations were still in progress and that the Spaniards had raised some rather unexpected questions.

The most important of these was an insistence that the Spanish troops should retain their arms when they returned to Spain. There was entire willingness on the part of General Toral to turn over the arms to General Shafter at the time of the surrender, but with this to be the understanding that the arms were to be returned to the Spanish troops when Spanish soil was reached. This was a condition which had not been anticipated. The authorities here did not regard it as serious, or as likely to overcome a final settlement, at the same time it was a point on which neither side appeared to be ready to yield.

General Shafter himself summed up the situation by saying: "It cannot be possible that there will be failure in completing arrangements." No question whatever has been raised as to the surrender itself. Not only has General Toral agreed to it, but this agreement has been ratified by General Blanco at Havana and by the Spanish authorities at Madrid.

The perplexing problem now to be solved is how to carry out the pledge made by General Shafter to remove the Spanish soldiers who surrender to Spain. It would have been no easy undertaking to remove the 20,000 men across the Atlantic under the best conditions, but the reports that indicated the existence of yellow fever among the Spaniards threatened all kinds of difficulties. After all it was decided to be only a matter of money and if the price offered is large enough steamship lines can doubtless be found to undertake the transportation.

It will be necessary to maintain a considerable proportion of the American army in the neighborhood for some time to come. The American troops, it is believed, can be so disposed as to make themselves very comfortable in comparison with what they have undergone and by removing them into the hills just in the rear of Santiago, it is believed that the danger of an extension of the yellow fever will be reduced so far that it will no longer be cause for grave apprehension. Not only has General Toral agreed to it, but this agreement has been ratified by General Blanco at Havana and by the Spanish authorities at Madrid.

The perplexing problem now to be solved is how to carry out the pledge made by General Shafter to remove the Spanish soldiers who surrender to Spain. It would have been no easy undertaking to remove the 20,000 men across the Atlantic under the best conditions, but the reports that indicated the existence of yellow fever among the Spaniards threatened all kinds of difficulties. After all it was decided to be only a matter of money and if the price offered is large enough steamship lines can doubtless be found to undertake the transportation.

It will be necessary to maintain a considerable proportion of the American army in the neighborhood for some time to come. The American troops, it is believed, can be so disposed as to make themselves very comfortable in comparison with what they have undergone and by removing them into the hills just in the rear of Santiago, it is believed that the danger of an extension of the yellow fever will be reduced so far that it will no longer be cause for grave apprehension. The surgeons report the disease as a mild type that will readily yield to a change of location into higher and cooler ground.

PRICE TWO CENTS

A Shattered Nervous System. FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.

Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nerve.

MR. EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co.'s great store at Braceville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."

UNCLE SAM'S TERMS

Must Be Accepted by Total or Hostilities Will Begin.

MUST GIVE UP THEIR ARMS

Only Concession Will Be Transport of Troops.

Conditions Decided Upon at Early Hours This Morning by the President and His Advisors—General Shafter Telegraphed That While Total War Was Willing to Surrender and Turn Over His Arms It Must Be With the Understanding That They Were to Be Returned on Reaching the Coast of Spain—No Peace Talk at the Cabinet Meeting—General Otis and His Expedition Sails for Manila. War Loan Bonds.

Washington, July 16.—After an extended conference with the president last night, lasting until the morning hours, at which three other members of the cabinet were present, Secretary Alger said: "The situation is just this: The Spaniards at Santiago are prepared to surrender, but they want to carry their arms. We have determined to grant no such concession nor any concession except the generosity of this government to transport them to Spain."

Secretary Alger was asked if it was not the expectation that when it was known that no other terms would be granted the surrender would take place, and replied that such was the case. In any event no other concession would be afforded by this government.

It was after one o'clock this morning when the conference at the white house adjourned. Besides Secretary Alger there were present Secretaries Bliss and Wilson and Postmaster General Emory Smith. Adjutant-General Corbin was present during the last hour of the conference.

General Shafter will be immediately instructed to carry out the determination of the president, with whom the matter has been thoroughly discussed. Secretary Alger did not say how much time would be allowed the enemy to reach a conclusion, but it is known that the administration will make it very short and submit to no further parley with General Toral. The next move is surrender upon the terms which the United States government propose—unconditional—or immediate attack upon the Spanish forces by the army and navy.

Woman's power is largely dependent upon her ability to interest, entertain, attract and please. It is for this reason that women strive to become accomplished. They study in order that they may converse intelligently on all subjects. They strive to become good musicians, graceful dancers and amiable hostesses. All accomplishments are unavailing if a woman suffers from ill-health in a womanly way. The special weakness peculiar to the womanly organism, will rapidly wreck the general health. The sufferer will lose her natural vivacity, her wit, her good looks, and the ambition and power to display the accomplishments at her command. Any woman affected in this way should resort to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a wonderful medicine for all women. It is the invention of an eminent and skillful physician, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. It aims to cure but one class of diseases, and claims to be good for nothing else. It imparts health, elastic strength, vigor and vitality to the delicate feminine organism. It prepares a woman for wifehood and motherhood. Mrs. Ramon Sanchez, Pecosco, Taos County, N. Mex., in a letter to Dr. Pierce says: "From a grateful heart my voice goes up to God both night and day in a solemn prayer that He may guard your health and preserve your life. I hereby express my gratitude to you for the relief I have received from your wonderful medicine. 'Favorite Prescription.' After suffering years of misery I am today a healthy and happy wife, and can truthfully recommend to women the use of the 'Favorite Prescription' as a regulator of the monthly periods." The quick constipation—cure—Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Never gripes.

NOTHING DEFINITE

Is Received from Shafter as to Conditions of Surrender. Washington, July 16.—For eighteen hours yesterday no word came from either General Shafter or General Miles, although there was the keenest desire on the part of the president and cabinet advisers to learn what had been done, and particularly to know whether the actual surrender of Santiago and the Spanish troops had been carried out. When the cabinet met there was positively nothing from the front which would serve as a guide for the deliberations.

It was thought that the cable had been interrupted, but on inquiry of General Greely, chief signal officer, he gave assurances that the cable was intact. Thereupon Secretary Alger sent a dispatch asking for the situation up to the latest moment, and particularly inquiring as to how far the surrender had proceeded. No answer came while the cabinet was in session.

In the meantime, General Greely had cabled and he was the first official to hear from the front. A dispatch from Lieutenant Jones, military censor at Playa del Este, reported that the message from the secretary of war to General Shafter was only six minutes in passage from Washington to Playa. Late in the afternoon dispatches from General Miles and General Shafter began to arrive in response to Secretary Alger's rather imperative request. They were not given out in full, but such portions as were made public showed that the negotiations were still in progress and that the Spaniards had raised some rather unexpected questions.

The most important of these was an insistence that the Spanish troops should retain their arms when they returned to Spain. There was entire willingness on the part of General Toral to turn over the arms to General Shafter at the time of the surrender, but with this was to be the understanding that the arms were to be returned to the Spanish troops when Spanish soil was reached. This was a condition which had not been anticipated. The authorities here did not regard it as serious, or as likely to overcome a final settlement, at the same time it was a point on which neither side appeared to be ready to yield.

General Shafter himself summed up the situation by saying: "It cannot be possible that there will be failure in completing arrangements." No question whatever has been raised as to the surrender itself. Not only has General Toral agreed to it, but this agreement has been ratified by General Blanco at Havana and by the Spanish authorities at Madrid.

The perplexing problem now to be solved is how to carry out the pledge made by General Shafter to remove the Spanish soldiers who surrender to Spain. It would have no easy undertaking to remove the 20,000 men across the Atlantic under the best conditions, but the reports that indicated the existence of yellow fever among the Spaniards threatened all kinds of difficulties. After all it was decided to be only a matter of money and if the price offered is large enough steamship lines can doubtless be found to undertake the transportation.

It will be necessary to maintain a considerable proportion of the American army in the neighborhood for some time to come. The American troops, it is believed, can be so disposed as to make themselves very comfortable in comparison with what they have undergone and by removing them into the hills just in the rear of Santiago, it is believed that the danger of an extension of the yellow fever will be reduced so far that it will no longer be cause for grave apprehension. The surgeons report the disease as of a mild type that will readily yield to a change of location into higher and cooler ground.

HUGGED AND HURRAHED.

Did the Soldiers When They Were Informed of the Surrender. Before Santiago de Cuba, July 14, via Kingston, Jamaica, July 16.—When Generals Shafter and Miles returned from the interview with General Toral at which the surrender of Santiago was agreed upon, General Shafter appointed Colonel Astor and Captain McKittick to convey the welcome tidings along the lines. Some of the officers favored celebrating the victory with bands and a noisy demonstration, but General Shafter vetoed the proposition. He said there was no occasion to humiliate the enemy, who had fought bravely.

Not even cheering was to be permitted, but before Colonel Astor and Captain McKittick could warn the soldiers the latter broke out into wild hurrahs. Some danced about, threw their hats into the air, hugged each other and congratulated themselves upon the prospect of getting out of Cuba in a few days.

General Shafter instructed the commissioners that the inside harbor entrance be immediately opened to allow Clara Barton of the Red Cross society and the supply ships to enter, and that the railroad from Sibony be opened for a similar purpose. We are to supply the Spanish prisoners with food pending their concentration and embarkation. General Toral requested this, saying that there was very little food.

WAR LOAN BONDS.

Banks and Associated Capital Barred From Participating.

Washington, July 16.—Assistant Secretary Vanderlip said last night that corrected figures show the total subscriptions to the war bond issue amounts in round numbers, including syndicate bids to $1,365,000,000. Mr. Vanderlip stated that these subscriptions for amounts below $5,000 will be allotted, those for exactly that amount will be awarded and the subscriptions for more than $5,000 will be rejected.

It may now be considered as a settled fact that no allotment of bonds can be made to banks, corporations of other forms of associated capital. The subscriptions made by individuals receive preference under the law, and the aggregate of individual subscriptions is far in excess of the total amount of bonds offered. In fact, no allotment to individual subscriptions will be possible where such subscriptions are in excess of $5,000. That is to say, the full $200,000,000 has been subscribed for by individuals in amounts of about $5,000 or less.

YELLOW FEVER.

Only Twenty-three New Cases Reported at Sibony.

Washington, July 15.—The following telegram was received at the war department last night from Surgeon Greenleaf at Sibony: Sibony, July 15.—Only 23 new cases of yellow fever and three deaths reported in the last 24 hours. General type of the disease mild. Camp site moved whenever practical. Have taken vigorous sanitary precautions to check the spread of the disease.

MURDERER M'COY

Arrested For Killing His Father-in-Law In 1889.

Taylorville, Ky., July 16.—Jailer Ross of Lancaster is here after William McCoy, who is under indictment for the murder of his father-in-law, David Whitehead, in 1889. McCoy made his escape, and it was by mere chance that the authorities learned of his whereabouts. He was arrested here for a minor offense.

ROOSEVELT'S UNCLE.

New York, July 16.—James A. Roosevelt, aged 76, the well known banker, and uncle of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, died yesterday suddenly on a Long Island railroad train, while on his way toyster bay, where he has his country residence. The bursting of a blood vessel in his brain is supposed to have been the cause of his death.

COREA INTERVIEWED

Spanish Minister of War Gives His Ideas of Peace Conditions

CUBANS SHOULD DECIDE

Whether They Desire Independence or Autonomy Under Spain.

AS TO PORTO RICO

He Thinks Spain Should Retain It at All Hazard and Is Certain She Will Retain the Philippines—Citizens of Barcelona Stricken Over the Possibility of the City Being Bombarded by Watson. British Weekly Press on the Fall of Santiago.

Madrid, July 16.—The Minister of War General Corea is quoted in an interview yesterday as saying peace might be restored on the following terms: "The United States and Spain to agree to let the Cubans decide by a plebiscite whether they desire independence or autonomy under the sovereignty of Spain."

"The two governments to abide by the result of the plebiscite. "In the event of the Cubans voting for independence, the United States to allow Spain nine months in which to withdraw her army, gradually and dignifiedly from Cuba, as soldiers should after having fought like heroes."

Continuing, the minister of war said: "We ought to retain Porto Rico at all costs, in order to be always near Cuba, of which the Americans will be able to despoil us in course of time, and in order to more easily communicate with the South American republics, which daily display the greatest enthusiasm for Spain."

"As to the Philippine islands, it is certain we will retain them even though the Americans succeed in occupying Manila, of which place their occupation will be most brief. An official dispatch announces that the rebel chiefs and the Americans will not always agree, which is to Spain's advantage."

"The government has formed a scheme which will not only assure Spain the possession of the Philippine islands, but which will re-establish tranquility."

WERE DISAPPOINTED.

Spanish Hoped Yellow Fever in Our Ranks Would Save Santiago.

London, July 16.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: The news of the capitulation of Santiago was received too late for comment by the morning papers. It caused disappointment because it was hoped, that although General Toral was in a desperate condition, the spread of yellow fever might in a few days have compelled the Americans to raise the siege and retire. Official information regarding the conditions of surrender was anxiously awaited.

Regarding the prospects of peace, General Sagasta interviewed by a representative of El Corresponsal is represented as saying: "It is certain, most certain, that the government has endeavored to ascertain extra officially the disposition of the Washington cabinet respecting a pacific solution, but for the moment I can say absolutely nothing because the enemy might wrongly suppose that we desired peace at any price and accordingly show himself more exacting. I have read the proposals cabled to El Imparcial, which are supposed to have been communicated by President McKinley to M. Gambon, the French ambassador at Washington. These conditions are so hard that I considered them inadmissible. The government has news of other proposals that are much more acceptable."

ARE PLEASED.

British Weekly Press Expresses Satisfaction Over the Fall of Santiago.

London, July 16.—The weekly papers express great satisfaction over the fall of Santiago de Cuba. The Speaker thinks the event presages the end of the war, but describes it as "a stroke of good fortune which the Americans had no right to expect."

It adds: "The terms of surrender are not dishonorable. They reflect credit upon both sides."

The Saturday Review explains its change of attitude in favor of America and declares its original antagonism was prompted by America's aggressive humor, while its present attitude is a somewhat tardy but ungrudging admission of American courage and humanity. The paper proceeds in terms of high praise of the United States along the lines of its article of a week ago.

PANIC STRICKEN.

Citizens of Barcelona Fear an American Bombardment.

London, July 16.—It was announced in a special from Barcelona yesterday afternoon that the inhabitants of that city are panic stricken. They believe the Americans will select defenseless Barcelona as the first point to bombard. The local banks are removing their specie to the country, the merchants are sending their goods to places of safety and many of the citizens are leaving.

The governor of Barcelona has informed the people that they cannot expect help from the government.

ITALY WILL SEND CRUISERS TO GIBRALTAR.

Rome, July 16.—It is asserted in the local journal that in the event of fighting between the United States and the coast of Spain, the Italian cruisers Dogali and Piemonte will be sent to Gibraltar.

SPANISH WAR LOAN.

Madrid, July 16.—The bank of Spain has opened subscriptions for treasury bonds. Already 23,000,000 pesetas have been taken.

PRIZE HORSE DEAD.

Rowena, Who Took First Prize at the Chicago Show.

Harrodsburg, Ky., July 16.—The beautiful prize pet saddle mare Rowena, valued at $1,200, the property of Miss Alice, daughter of Colonel J. B. Castleman, is dead at Castleman place, "Clifton," in this county. She was used for saddle and driving purposes by Miss Castleman. She was a solid black, very graceful, and finely formed and took the first prize as the best lady's saddle mare at the Chicago horse show in 1897. When very ill the intelligent animal struggled to her feet, and went round to each member of the anxious company and told them goodby in animal fashion, as she had been trained to do, and died in two minutes thereafter.

M'COY AND CORBETT.

Articles of Agreement For a Twenty Round Contest Signed.

New York, July 16.—Articles of agreement which will govern a 20-round glove contest between James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy were signed at Considine's hotel by representatives of both pugilists yesterday afternoon.

According to the agreement the men will fight for a purse of $20,000, winner to take all, before the Hawthorne Athletic club of Buffalo on the afternoon of Sept. 10. Both men have commenced training.

BLANCO NOW WILLING

To Let the Decision of Peace or War Rest With Madrid.

London, July 16.—All the dispatches from Madrid to the London morning papers agree that Captain General Blanco and his staff are now willing to let the decision as to peace or war rest with the home government. This change in their attitude is supposed to be due to the lack of provisions and equipments. The Times commenting editorially this morning on the reported statement of Lieutenant General Correa, the Spanish minister of war, as to the terms upon which he thought peace might be arranged, says it is afraid that none of the terms General Correa suggests has any chance of acceptance at Washington.

"It will be realized at Washington that the chance of getting a money indemnity is extremely remote, and as a business transaction, the Americans will properly take any indemnity they think proper in the form of territory, should any of the colonies be left in Spanish possession at the conclusion of peace."

GENERAL TORAL.

Believed to Be Having Difficulty in Surrendering All His Command.

Washington, July 16.—The unusual delay which has puzzled the war officials, is accounted for by the difficulties which General Toral is having in surrendering that force under his command which is not in the city of Santiago. General Shafter estimates that there are from 12,000 to 15,000 in Santiago and nearly as many more in the province outside the city. It is believed that the delay in the negotiations is made necessary in order to secure the surrender of the outlying garrisons, some of which may question Toral's authority to surrender them, without definite instructions to that effect from Madrid.

OFF FOR MANILA.

Fourth Expedition Sailed Last Evening From San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 16.—The fourth Manila expedition is under way. Late yesterday afternoon Major General Otis from his flagship, the City of Puebla, signalled the transport Peru to get underway. The signals were understood by the anxious watchers on shore and by those who had surrounded the two vessels in small boats and were received with great cheering.

As the two vessels got under way the cheering increased in volume and to the accompaniment of hundreds of steam whistles and the firing of bombs and cannon, the two vessels proceeded slowly down the bay, past the water front and out to sea.

PEACE

Was Not Mentioned in the Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, July 16.—The subject of peace was not mentioned at the meeting yesterday, and it can be authoritatively stated that the president has not received an intimation from any officers or even semi-official source that Spain desires peace upon any terms that could be entertained by the United States. One prominent member of the cabinet said that Spain was rapidly losing ground by not seeking to make terms, and added that "she seemed to have no ability to make war or capacity to make peace."

BRADSTREET.

Conditions Said to Be Favorable in the Business World.

New York, July 16.—Bradstreet's today says: Pending the initiation of new fall business, preparations for which are actively under way in all markets, there exists a quiet midsummer condition, accompanied, however, in most cases, by price steadiness and confidence in a promising outlook for fall trade. Retrospection and review continue to furnish many satisfactory illustrations of the favorable conditions experienced during the first half of the present year, some of which seem bound to be duplicated during the second half. While there seems little reason to expect anything like the excited foreign buying of cereals this year which occurred last season, the world's wheat crops all pointing to exceptionally large if not record breaking yields, still the situation of carried over supplies, visible and invisible, is such as to lead to confidence in a good, general demand for most of this country's surplus, though the outlook favors a considerable shading of prices obtained from such products.

MILLION IN GOLD

Brought From Dawson City to Victoria, B. C.

Seattle, Wash., July 16.—A private dispatch from Victoria, B. C., says that the steamer Cottage City has arrived there from Alaska with a number of passengers from Dawson City who have a large amount of gold dust and drafts, estimated at a million dollars. The gold was brought up the Yukon in steamers and overland to the Lynn canal.

WILL REMAIN IN CHICAGO.

Omaha, Neb., July 16.—The executive committee of the National Republican League decided to retain its headquarters in the Auditorium hotel, Chicago. The place for the next convention is to be settled at some future time. Carranza Did Not Sail.

Montreal, July 15.—It is stated positively that Lieutenant Carranza was impersonated by some unknown person and did not board the ship and sail with DeBose. Where Carranza is now is a mystery.

The Indiana Republican State Convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis on Wednesday and Thursday, August 3d and 4th, 1898. The convention will be composed of 161 delegates, and promises to be one of the most interesting and enthusiastic conventions ever held in the State. RAILROAD RATES. Arrangements have been made with all railroads in Indiana for special rates to the Convention particulars of which will be announced later. COL. GEORGE E. STONE, of California, has been chosen president of the Republican National League. SENATOR H. Q. HORTON has been nominated for judge of the Davies and Martin circuit by the republicans. MONROE county is getting some unfavorable advertisement out of the recent appearance of white caps over there. GENERAL TOLWELL would better not trifle with General Shafter. He had just as well accept the original conditions of the surrender of Santiago at once and pack his grip. THE Greensburg New Era, the policy of which is yet controlled by Allen W. Clark, has some unkind things to say about one Thomas Taggart, the boss and promises opposition to the boss ambitious to be governor of Indiana. GOVERNOR MOUNT said last night that the total war claims paid so far have amounted to about $150,000. If the claims were audited they would aggregate about $100,000 more. Nevertheless the state has paid $200,000 on the bonded debt. ALL of the reports agree that the appetites of the Spanish prisoners are excellent. It is doubtless pleasant to them to again, after many months, make the acquaintance of a menu that does not include horseflesh and other such delicacies. THE Fourth district committee acted wisely in selecting Seymour as the place of holding the congressional convention. No other city in the district has better railroad facilities or better accommodations generally than Seymour. The delegates can get here without inconvenience and we are prepared to take care of them properly after they get here. Seymour is a first-class convention town. We want a large crowd August 18. It was to be expected that ex-President Harrison would approve the annexation of Hawaii. He signed the treaty of annexation in the closing days of his administration which Mr. Cleveland withdrew from the Senate. In expressing his hearty approval of the measure General Harrison says: "In my opinion, it necessitates the construction of the Nicaraguan canal. While there was a need of this canal before, it now becomes imperative." A great many democratic papers over the state have found serious fault with the supreme court because of the recent decision in the case of the law extending the offices of the township trustees and assessors. At first they seemed to be unmindful of the fact that their criticism was involving Judge McCabe, one of their own brethren who has been renominated. But since they have been given full information as to that they have much less to say about the decision, some of them even apologizing for what they have said. CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

THOMAS HANNA, ex-lieutenant governor of Indiana, is announced as a republican candidate for attorney-general. The only other candidate announced for that same office is W. L. Taylor, of Indianapolis. Both of these gentlemen have many acquaintances in Jackson county. Knows Montgomery. Our old friend, Oscar H. Montgomery, of Seymour, will be a candidate for supreme judge, before the republican state convention. He is a graduate of Hanover college and is a brilliant man. Not in Richmond, but in Charlotte, Where He Lived. Every now and then we see in some newspaper the query, "Where is Patrick Henry buried?" and tourists in Richmond constantly ask to be shown his grave, with the mistaken idea that it is in that city, where much of his public career was passed. Few people comparatively know that the man who acquired the title of "The Tongue of the Revolution" lies in a quiet grave on the estate in Charlotte county where he formerly lived. Over it is a marble slab inscribed with one line, "His fame his best epitaph." The estate lies on Staunton river, 38 miles from the town of Lynchburg, near the border line which separates Charlotte and Campbell counties. It derived its name of Red Hill from the peculiar color of the soil in that vicinity. When Patrick Henry bought the place, it comprised about 3,500 acres. The land is rich—there was a saying in the neighborhood that poor land and Henry could never be mentioned together—corn grows there as high as a man on horseback; there is a general air of smiling fields and abundant prosperity. Its situation in early times was very remote. Neighbors were few, one of the nearest being the celebrated John Randolph of Roanoke, who lived in his chosen solitude 15 miles away. Red Hill is now owned by Henry's grandson, William Wirt Henry, a clever, cultivated gentleman of the "old school." He has in his possession some most interesting relics of his celebrated grandfather, including the desk he always used, which still contains his letters from Lafayette, Washington, Madison and other great men of early days; the large, round backed chair in which Patrick Henry died and a portrait of him by the older Sully, under which hangs a yellowed slip of paper, signed by Chief Justice John Marshall and several others of his friends, testifying to the faithfulness of the likeness.—Philadelphia Press. If She Were a Man. "Oh," she suddenly exclaimed, "I wish I were a man." "What would you do?" he asked. "I'll not say what I would do, but there is one thing I will confess that I wouldn't do." "And that is?" "I wouldn't sit around as if I had handcuffs on when I happened to be alone with a girl."—Cleveland Leader.

Special Sale. Suits from $2.50 to $5.00, worth $4 to $8. Special Bargains in Ladies' and Gent's Shoes and Slippers at the No. 14 S. Chestnut St. A SPANISH BRAVADO. REVOLVING SCENE PICTURED BY A CASTILIAN NOVELIST. A Striking Description of the Daring and Courage Displayed by the Retired General Who Would Not Permit an Englishman to Outdo Him. The realistic Spanish novelist, Valdes, in one of his most popular stories ("Sister San Suplice," translated by Nathan Haskell Dole) gives a description of a retired Spanish general's afternoon out which will illuminate many chivalric incidents in Spanish life and aptly illustrates the reckless daring and courage of which the average laity don is liberally possessed. The scene is a sort of picnic grounds in the outskirts of Seville: "Meantime the animation had been on the increase among the ruffians. The period of unmanly action had come. One of them climbed upon the table to make a speech, and the others, by way of applause, threw sherry and manzanilla in his face. Another was trying to lift with his teeth a companion whom drunkenness had stretched out on the floor. He did not succeed. He merely tore his sack coat. Still others were committing absurd and extravagant actions, making a great noise and uproar. "The count remained grave and silent, drinking one glass of sherry after another. But his eyes were no longer, as usual, incomprehensible and unfathomable, like those of a man tired of life. Though he did not speak or move about he seemed a different man. "The Englishman had taken off his jacket and waistcoat, and rolling up his shirt sleeves, was exhibiting his biceps, which were really powerful, and trying to break empty bottles on his arm. Once blood had come, but he went on breaking the bottles without paying any attention to it. Then he asked the waiter to bring a bottle of rum and a large glass. He filled this to the brim with the liquor, and then slowly, without moving a muscle or even winking, he drained it to the bottom. Then he sat down at the table opposite the count and said solemnly: "You can't do that." "A flash of fury gleamed through the harembrained nobleman's eyes, but he succeeded in restraining himself, and, turning the rest of the bottle into the glass, he calmly ordered the waiter to bring him some pepper. He threw in a pinch of it, then threw into it his cigar ashes heaped up before him, and, without saying a word, with the same scornful, contemptuous smile, drained the glass, and, not content with that, bit it in pieces. The company received with oles and shouts of triumph this proof of an ungenerous stomach, in which it seemed as though the national honor were concerned. "Our neighbors in the other booths must have reached the same happy grade of temperance, for nothing was heard but exultant shouts, the crashing of glasses, coarse laughter and swearing. "The count was not yet satisfied with his victory over the Englishman. While he was swallowing with apparent calmness the glasses of liquor which were offered to him he did not cease to devour him with his eyes, carried away by a dull madness, which soon broke out. His eyes, which were the only part of his impassive face that moved, gleamed more and more ferociously, like those of a madman when a straitjacket has been put on him. The Englishman continued to boast of his strength. He was now thoroughly intoxicated and talking impudently enough to the others, who were not so drunk. "So you are very valiant, are you?" asked the count, still smiling disdainfully. "More than you," retorted the Englishman. "Don't you start to spring at him, but the others restrained him. Soor gaining himself, he said: "If you are so brave, why not put your hand on the table?" "What for?" "To pin it down with mine." "The Englishman, without an instant's hesitation, stretched out his huge, brawny hand. The count took out of his pocket a damasked dagger and laid his delicate, gentlemanly hand on the Englishman's, and without hesitation and with a ferocious grip he raised the point with the other and drove it through both into the table. "The women uttered a cry of terror. All of us men ran to their assistance. A few left the place in search of help. In an instant our booth was filled with blood. From the wounds great drops of blood streamed, staining the handkerchiefs which we applied to them. "A doctor who happened to be among the bystanders dressed the wounds provisionally with the few means at his disposal. The count smiled while they were dressing his hand. The Englishman was as sick as a horse and vomiting. Soon the count was doing the same, and both were taken to such rooms as the establishment had to offer and went to bed. Every one left, commenting on the barbarism of the deed." Hospital Train. Atlanta, Ga., July 16.—The hospital train, bearing 90 privates, reached Fort McPherson last night. About half the men are wounded and the others are ill of typhoid fever. A number of the men were unconscious when taken from the train, and the doctors say there are several who will not recover. Only those whose cases were most serious were taken off here and the train started for Fort Thomas, Ky. Don's Forget. Republican State Convention.

The Indiana Republican State Convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis on Wednesday and Thursday, August 3d and 4th, 1898.

The convention will be composed of 1616 delegates, and promises to be one of the most interesting and enthusiastic conventions ever held in the State.

RAILROAD RATES.

Arrangements have been made with all railroads in Indiana for special rates to the Convention particulars of which will be announced later.

Col. George E. Stone, of California, has been chosen president of the Republican National League.

SENATOR H. Q. HORTON has been nominated for judge of the Davis and Martin circuit by the republicans.

MONROE county is getting some unenviable advertisement out of the recent appearance of white caps over there.

GENERAL TOLAN would better not trifle with General Shafter. He had just as well accept the original conditions of the surrender of Santiago at once and pack his grip.

THE Greensburg New Era, the policy of which is yet controlled by Allen W. Clark, has some unkind things to say about one Thomas Taggart, the boss and promises opposition to the boss ambitious to be governor of Indiana.

GOVERNOR MOUNT said last night that the total war claims paid so far have amounted to about $150,000. If the claims were audited they would aggregate about $100,000 more. Nevertheless the state has paid $200,000 on the bonded debt.

ALL of the reports agree that the appetites of the Spanish prisoners are excellent. It is doubtless pleasant to them to again, after many months, make the acquaintance of a menu that does not include horseflesh and other such delicacies.

THE Fourth district committeemen acted wisely in selecting Seymour as the place of holding the congressional convention. No other city in the district has better railroad facilities or better accommodations generally than Seymour. The delegates can get here without inconvenience and we are prepared to take care of them properly after they get here. Seymour is a first-class convention town. We want a large crowd August 18.

It was to be expected that ex-President Harrison would approve the annexation of Hawaii. He signed the treaty of annexation in the closing days of his administration which Mr. Cleveland withdrew from the Senate. In expressing his hearty approval of the measure General Harrison says: "In my opinion, it necessitates the construction of the Nicaraguan canal. While there was a need of this canal before, it now becomes imperative." This is true, and the acquisition by the United States of Porto Rico will make the canal doubly imperative.—Journal.

A great many democratic papers over the state have found serious fault with the supreme court because of the recent decision in the case of the law extending the offices of the township trustees and assessors. At first they seemed to be unmindful of the fact that their criticism was involving Judge McCabe, one of their own brethren who has been renominated. But since they have been given full information as to that they have much less to say about the decision, some of them even apologizing for what they have said.

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

THOMAS HANNA, ex-lieutenant governor of Indiana, is announced as a republican candidate for attorney-general. The only other candidate announced for that same office is W. L. Taylor, of Indianapolis. Both of these gentlemen have many acquaintances in Jackson county.

Knows Montgomery.

Our old friend, Oscar H. Montgomery, of Seymour, will be a candidate for supreme judge, before the republican state convention. He is a graduate of Hanover college and is a brilliant man. From the humble position of a country school teacher he has risen by his own energy and force of intellect to a place of honor and distinction. He was a delegate to the national convention at St. Louis, and has been an active worker for the best interests of the republican party.

Mr. Montgomery is a native of Jackson county. He served for ten years as city attorney of Seymour, and he acted as a special judge in a number of cases. His scholarship and recognized legal knowledge thoroughly qualify him for Supreme Judge, while his labors for the good of the republican party entitles him to the nomination which he seeks. If nominated his great popularity will make his election doubly sure.—Vincennes Commercial.

GRAVE OF PATRICK HENRY.

Not in Richmond, but in Charlotte, Where He Lived.

Every now and then we see in some newspaper the query, "Where is Patrick Henry buried?" and tourists in Richmond constantly ask to be shown his grave, with the mistaken idea that it is in that city, where much of his public career was passed. Few people comparatively know that the man who acquired the title of "The Tongue of the Revolution" lies in a quiet grave on the estate in Charlotte county where he formerly lived. Over it is a marble slab inscribed with one line, "His fame his best epitaph."

The estate lies on Staunton river, 38 miles from the town of Lynchburg, near the border line which separates Charlotte and Campbell counties. It derived its name of Red Hill from the peculiar color of the soil in that vicinity. When Patrick Henry bought the place, it comprised about 4,000 acres. The land is rich—there was a saying in the neighborhood that poor land and Henry could never be mentioned together—corn grows there as high as a man on horseback; there is a general air of smiling fields and abundant prosperity. Its situation in early times was very remote. Neighbors were few, one of the nearest being the celebrated John Randolph of Roanoke, who lived in his chosen solitude 15 miles away.

Red Hill is now owned by Henry's grandson, William Wirt Henry, a clever, cultivated gentleman of the "old school." He has in his possession some most interesting relics of his celebrated grandfather, including the desk he always used, which still contains his letters from Lafayette, Washington, Madison and other great men of early days; the large, round backed chair in which Patrick Henry died and a portrait of him by the older Sully, under which hangs a yellowed slip of paper, signed by Chief Justice John Marshall and several others of his friends, testifying to the faithfulness of the likeness.—Philadelphia Press.

If She Were a Man.

"Oh," she suddenly exclaimed, "I wish I were a man."

"What would you do?" he asked.

"I'll not say what I would do, but there is one thing I will confess that I wouldn't do."

"And that is?"

"I wouldn't sit around as if I had handcuffs on when I happened to be alone with a girl."—Cleveland Leader.

A SPANISH BRAVADO.

REVOLTING SCENE: PICTURED BY A CASTILIAN NOVELIST.

A Striking Description of the Daring and Courage Displayed by the Retired General Who Would Not Permit an Englishman to Outdo Him.

The realistic Spanish novelist, Valdes, in one of his most popular stories ("Sister San Suplice," translated by Nathan Haskell Dole) gives a description of a retired Spanish general's afternoon out which will illuminate many chivalric incidents in Spanish life and aptly illustrates the reckless daring and courage of which the average haughty don is liberally possessed. The scene is a sort of picnic grounds in the outskirts of Seville:

"Meantime the animation had been on the increase among the ruffians. The period of unmanly action had come. One of them climbed upon the table to make a speech, and the others, by way of applause, threw sherry and manzanilla in his face. Another was trying to lift with his teeth a companion whom drunkenness had stretched out on the floor. He did not succeed. He merely tore his sack coat. Still others were committing absurd and extravagant actions, making a great noise and uproar.

"The count remained grave and silent, drinking one glass of sherry after another. But his eyes were no longer, as usual, incomprehensible and unfathomable, like those of a man tired of life. Though he did not speak or move about he seemed a different man.

"The Englishman had taken off his jacket and waistcoat, and, rolling up his shirt sleeves, was exhibiting his biceps, which were really powerful, and trying to break empty bottles on his arm. Once blood had come, but he went on breaking the bottles without paying any attention to it. Then he asked the waiter to bring a bottle of rum and a large glass. He filled this to the brim with the liquor, and then slowly, without moving a muscle or even winking, he drained it to the bottom. Then he sat down at the table opposite the count and said solemnly:

"You can't do that."

"A flash of fury gleamed through the harlequin's eyes, but he succeeded in restraining himself, and, turning the rest of the bottle into the glass, he calmly ordered the waiter to bring him some pepper. He threw in a pinch of it, then threw into it his cigar ashes heaped up before him, and, without saying a word, with the same scornful, contemptuous smile, drained the glass, and, not content with that, bit it in pieces. We saw his lips spotted with blood. The company received with oles and shouts of triumph this proof of an unconquerable stomach, in which it seemed as though the national honor were concerned.

"Our neighbors in the other booths must have reached the same happy grade of temperature, for nothing was heard but ex-avagant shouts, the crashing of glasses, coarse laughter and swearing.

"The count was not yet satisfied with his victory over the Englishman. While he was swallowing with apparent calmness the glasses of liquor which were offered to him he did not cease to devour him with his eyes, carried away by a dull madness, which soon broke out. His eyes, which were the only part of his impassive face that moved, gleamed more and more ferociously, like those of a madman when a stratagem has been put on him. The Englishman continued to boast of his strength. He was now thoroughly intoxicated and talking impudently enough to the others, who were not so drunk.

"So you are very valiant, are you?" asked the count, still smiling disdainfully.

"More than you," retorted the Englishman.

"Don't start to spring at him, but the others restrained him. Soon calming himself, he said:

"If you are so brave, why not put your hand on the table?"

"What for?"

"To pin it down with mine."

"The Englishman, without an instant's hesitation, stretched out his huge, brawny hand. The count took out of his pocket a damasked dagger and laid his delicate, gentlemanly hand on the Englishman's, and without hesitation and with a ferocious grip he raised the point with the other and drove it through both into the table."

"The women uttered a cry of terror. All of us men ran to their assistance. A few left the place in search of help. In an instant our booth was filled with blood. From the wounds great drops of blood streamed, staining the handkerchiefs which we applied to them.

"A doctor who happened to be among the bystanders dressed the wounds provisionally with the few means at his disposal. The count smiled while they were dressing his hand. The Englishman was as sick as a horse and vomiting. Soon the count was doing the game, and both were taken to such rooms as the establishment had to offer and went to bed. Every one left, commenting on the barbarism of the deed."

there is no limit to American good na-

the hitch arose over a demand by Gen.

Martial law has been declared
throughout Spain. It is conjectured
that this is a precaution to prevent outbreaks when the government proposes
peace.

Capt. Gen. Blanco is said to be more firmly set against peace than ever. In an interview yesterday he declared that
if he could prevent it there would be no
peace between Spain and the United States on the basis of Cuba passing
from Spanish control. He favors waging incessant warfare against the United States.

Still other changes may be made

may remain in West Indian waters and
the fighting companion of the Oregon
may be the Texas or the Brooklyn.

thing when they have a chance to get
it and there are other towns that don't.

The number of stages and performers
will be increased over the number em-

several street arches and an electric

of last year. The premiums offered by the merchants are much more liberal.

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

McELEE'S Wine of Cardui

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address giving symptoms to the Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."

The injury is fatal. When Baldwin staggered and fell Mrs. McCormick rushed out of a dressing room partly clothed and screaming with fury, while she held a revolver in each hand. Meanwhile McCormick ran west on the railroad track shouting: "I have avenged the devil who robbed me of my wife and disgraced my home." He escaped arrest.

HOW A WOUND HEALS.

When the Blood is Pure a Wound Heals Quickly.
The Fact Demonstrated in the Case of a Baptist Clergyman of Ashley, Ohio.

From the Times, Ashley, Ohio.

Elder A. S. Shoemaker has been a lifelong resident of Ashley, Ohio, and is favorably known by a wide circle of friends in this part of the state. For many years he was a prominent Baptist minister. He has been Mayor of Ashley for three successive terms, filling the position with dignity and honor, and has held other offices of trust.

He is sixty-six years of age, hale and hearty, and attributes his present healthful condition entirely to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

"For about twenty-five years," he says "I was afflicted with rheumatism and was constantly in pain. I could not remain in one position for but a few moments at a time and could sleep but little at night. I was dragging out a miserable existence. Especially in damp, low weather I would be very miserable. I frequently remarked that I was a traveling barometer, as I could always tell when a change in the weather was coming. I tried a great many remedies that were recommended, but they did not help me.

"One day while at work and complaining of my pain in the presence of Mr. Elias Bishop, a neighbor, he asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I told him no. I had never heard of them. He advised me to try them, saying they had benefited him and might help me. I replied that I had no faith in any medicine as I had tried so many different remedies without receiving any benefit that I did not think it worth while to throw away more money.

"Time passed on for nearly a year and on one night I was suffering intense pain and I thought of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and concluded to try them. In the morning I went to the drug store and purchased a box of the pills and commenced using them according to directions.

"It was the wisest thing I ever did. On the third night after commencing their use I went to bed and slept all night without a particle of pain. I continued taking the pills until I used five boxes and have not felt any symptoms of my old trouble since that time, now two years ago.

"Just after I stopped the use of the pills I met with an accident. In chopping wood I cut my foot very badly, the axe going clear through the instep of my foot. It was thought the wound would be very hard to heal for a man of my age, but to the surprise of everybody it healed quickly without any difficulty. I attribute this also to the good condition of my blood through the use of the pills.

"In rheumatism the blood has an acid impurity which irritates the sensitive tissues that unite the joints and cover the muscles, thus causing those indescribable tortures which rheumatic sufferers endure. Rheumatism is always dangerous as it is liable to attack the heart.

Years ago those afflicted were bled; as if taking away some of the impure blood could remedy the balance. This folly has been abandoned, and to-day physicians prescribe and druggists recommend the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, as these marvelous vegetable pills go directly to the seat of the trouble exerting a powerful influence in purifying and enriching the blood by eliminating poisonous elements and renewing health-giving forces, thus making a potent remedy for curing this disease.

One of the ideal vacation trips is a visit to the seashore. Persons who may have participated in that enjoyment are yearly anxious to repeat the experience. To those who may not have been that fortunate, a dip in the ocean, a stroll along the sandy beach, and the myriads of pleasures at the disposal of the summer idler by the sea, have a peculiar charm. The largely patronized general excursions inaugurated last season by the Pennsylvania lines from principal points in Ohio and Indiana brought out that fact. The announcement that the Pennsylvania system will this summer again run special low rate excursions to the seashore will no doubt be welcome information to persons who may wish to spend highly enjoyable vacations along the ocean.

Tuesday, July 19 and Wednesday, August 10th has been fixed as the dates for this season's general excursions to the seashore over the Pennsylvania lines. On that date round trip tickets to ten of the most popular summer havens along the Atlantic Coast will be sold. The rate will be $15 from Seymour. Passengers may visit either Atlantic City, Cape May, Anglesse, Avalon, Holly Beach, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Wildwood, New Jersey, Rehoboth Del., or Ocean City, Md.

Excursion tickets will be good returning eleven days including date of sale. Train arrangements will enable excursionists to go through without any discomfort. Sleeping cars running through Philadelphia to Atlantic City without change via Delaware River Bridge Route will be included in the through car arrangements for these excursions, which will offer exceptional facilities for a delightful midsummer outing by the sea. The date on which they will run is perhaps the dullest season of the year, when absence from home and business cares will be convenient.

For special information about time of trains and other details, and for descriptive matter of the ten resorts to which tickets will be sold, list of hotels at each, please address Geo. L. Williams, ticket agent, or W. W. Richardson, D. P. Agt., Indianapolis, Ind.

UNCLE SAM'S TERMS

Must Be Accepted by Toral or Hostilities

MUST GIVE UP THEIR ARMS

Only Concession Will Be
Transport of Troops.

Conditions Decided Upon at Early Hours
This morning by the President and His
Advisers—General Shafter Telegraphed
That While Toral Was Willing to Surrender and Turn Over His Arms It Must Be With the Understanding That They Were to Be Returned on Reaching the Coast of Spain—No Peace Talk
at the Cabinet Meeting—General Otis
and His Expedition Sails for Manila.
War Loan Bonds.

Washington, July 16.—After an extended conference with the president
last night, lasting until the morning
hours, at which three other members of the cabinet were present, Secretary
Alger said:

"The situation is just this: The Spaniards at Santiago are prepared to surrender, but they want to carry their arms. We have determined to grant
no such concession nor any concession
except the generosity of this government to transport them to Spain."

Secretary Alger was asked if it was not the expectation that when it was known that no other terms would be granted the surrender would take place,
and replied that such was the case. In any event no other concession would be afforded by this government.

It was after one o'clock this morning
when the conference at the white house adjourned. Besides Secretary Alger
there were present Secretaries Bliss
and Wilson and Postmaster General Emory Smith. Adjutant-General Corbin was present during the last hour of the conference.

General Shafter will be immediately
instructed to carry out the determination of the president, with whom the matter has been thoroughly discussed.
Secretary Alger did not say how much time would be allowed the enemy to reach a conclusion, but it is known that the administration will make it very short and submit to no further parley with General Toral. The next move is surrender upon the terms which the United States government propose—unconditional—or immediate attack upon the Spanish forces by the army and navy.

WOMAN'S POWER
Woman's power is largely dependent
upon her ability to interest, entertain,
attract and please. It is for this reason that women strive to become accomplished.
They study in order that they may converse intelligently on all subjects. They strive to become good musicians, graceful dancers and amiable hostesses.
All accomplishments are unavailing if a woman suffers from ill-health in a womanly
way. The special weakness peculiar to the womanly organism will rapidly wreck her general health. The sufferer will lose her natural vivacity, her wit, her good looks,
and the ambition and power to display the accomplishments at her command. Any woman affected in this way should resort
to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a wonderful medicine for ailing women. It is the invention of an eminent and skillful physician, Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years
chief consulting physician to the Invalids'
Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. It aims to cure but one class of diseases, and claims to be good for nothing else. It imparts health, elastic strength, vigor and virility to the delicate feminine organs. It prepares a woman for wifehood
and motherhood.

Mrs. Ramon Sanchez, Pecos, Taos County, N. Mex., in a letter to Dr. Pierce says: "From a grateful heart my voice goes up to God both night and day in a solemn prayer that He may guard
your health and preserve your life. I hereby express my gratitude to you for the relief I have received from your wonderful medicine. I favor
I am to-day a healthy and happy wife, and can truthfully recommend to women the use of the Favorite Prescription as a regulator of the monthly periods."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Never gripes.

NOTHING DEFINITE
Is Received from Shafter as to Conditions
of Surrender.

Washington, July 16.—For eighteen hours yesterday no word came from either General Shafter or General Miles,
although there was the keenest desire
on the part of the president and cabinet
advisers to learn what had been done,
and particularly to know whether the actual surrender of Santiago and the Spanish troops had been carried out.
When the cabinet met there was positively nothing from the front which would serve as a guide for the deliberations.

It was thought that the cable had been interrupted, but on inquiry of General Greely, chief signal officer, he gave assurances that the cable was intact. Thereupon Secretary Alger sent a dispatch asking for the situation
up to the latest moment, and particularly inquiring as to how far the surrender had proceeded. No answer came while the cabinet was in session.

In the meantime, General Greely had cabled and he was the first official to hear from the front. A dispatch from Lieutenant Jones, military censor at Playa del Este, reported that the message from the secretary of war to General Shafter was only six minutes in passage from Washington to Playa. Late in the afternoon dispatches from General Miles and General Shafter began to arrive in response to Secretary Alger's rather imperative request. They were not given out in full, but such portions
as were made public showed that the negotiations were still in progress and that the Spaniards had raised some rather unexpected questions.

The most important of these was an insistence that the Spanish troops should retain their arms when they returned to Spain. There was entire willingness on the part of General Toral to turn over the arms to General Shafter at the time of the surrender, but with this was to be the understanding that the arms
were to be returned to the Spanish troops when Spanish soil was reached.
This was a condition which had not been anticipated. The authorities here did not regard it as serious, or as likely to overcome a final settlement, at the same time it was a point on which neither side appeared to be ready to yield.

General Shafter himself summed up
the situation by saying: "It cannot be possible that there will be failure in completing arrangements." No question whatever has been raised as to the surrender itself. Not only has General Toral agreed to it, but this agreement
has been ratified by General Blanco
at Havana and by the Spanish authorities at Madrid.

The perplexing problem now to be solved is how to carry out the pledge
made by General Shafter to remove the Spanish soldiers who surrender to Spain.
It would have been no easy undertaking
to remove the 20,000 men across the Atlantic under the best conditions, but the reports that indicated the existence of yellow fever among the Spaniards
threatened all kind of difficulties.
After all it was decided to be only a matter of money and if the price offered is large enough steamship lines can doubletime to be found to undertake the transportation.

It will be necessary to maintain a considerable proportion of the American army in the neighborhood for some time to come. The American troops, it is believed, can be so disposed as to make themselves very comfortable in comparison with what they have undergone
and by removing them into the hills
just in the rear of Santiago, it is believed that the danger of an extension of the yellow fever will be reduced so far that it will no longer be cause for grave apprehension. The surgeons reported the disease as of a mild type that will readily yield to a change of location into higher and cooler ground.

HUGGED AND HURRAHED.

Did the Soldiers When They Were Informed of the Surrender.

Before Santiago de Cuba, July 14, via Kington, Jamaica, July 16.—When Generals Shafter and Miles returned from the interview with General Toral
at which the surrender of Santiago was agreed upon, General Shafter appointed Colonel Astor and Captain McKittick
to convey the welcome tidings along the lines. Some of the officers favored celebrating the victory with bands and a noisy demonstration, but General Shafter vetoed the proposition. He said there was no occasion to humiliate the enemy, who had fought bravely.

Not even cheering was to be permitted, but before Colonel Astor and Captain McKittick could warn the soldiers the latter broke out into wild hurras. Some danced about, threw their hats into the air, hugged each other and congratulated themselves upon the prospect of getting out of Cuba
in a few days.

General Shafter instructed the commissioners that the inside harbor entrance be immediately opened to allow Clara Barton of the Red Cross society
and the supply ships to enter, and that the railroad from Sibony be opened for a similar purpose.

We are to supply the Spanish prisoners with food pending their concentration and embarkation. General Toral requested this, saying that there was very little food.

It is probable that the Spanish steamers in the harbor will be used in part for the transportation of the surrendered
soldiers to Spain. The Spanish troops abandoned the entrenchments early
this afternoon and went into the city.

WAR LOAN BONDS.

Banks and Associated Capital Barred From Participating.
Washington, July 16.—Assistant Secretary Vanderlip said last night that corrected figures show the total subscriptions to the war bond issue amounts
in round numbers, including syndicate
bids to $1,865,000,000. Mr. Vanderlip stated that these subscriptions for amounts below $5,000 will be allotted,
those for exactly that amount will be awarded and the subscriptions for more than $5,000 will be rejected.

It may now be considered as a settled
fact that no allotment of bonds can be made to banks, corporations of other forms of associated capital. The subscriptions made by individuals receive preference under the law, and the aggregate of individual subscriptions is far in excess of the total amount of bonds offered. In fact, no allotment to individual subscriptions will be possible
where such subscriptions are in excess of $5,000. That is to say, the full $200,- 000,000 has been subscribed for by individuals in amounts of about $5,000 or less.

YELLOW FEVER.

Only Twenty-three New Cases Reported
at Sibony.

Washington, July 15.—The following telegram was received at the war department last night from Surgeon
Greenleaf at Sibony:

Sibony, July 15.—Only 23 new cases of yellow fever and three deaths reported in the last 24 hours. General type of the disease mild. Camp site moved whenever practical. Have taken vigorous sanitary precautions to check the spread of the disease.

McCoy, who is under indictment for the murder of his father-in-law, David Whitehead, in 1880. McCoy made his escape, and it was by mere chance that
the authorities learned of his whereabouts.
He was arrested here for a minor offense.

ROOSEVELT'S UNCLE.

New York, July 16.—James A. Roosevelt, aged 76, the well known banker,
and uncle of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, died yesterday suddenly on a Long Island railroad train, while on his way
to Oyster bay, where he has his country
residence. The bursting of a blood vessel in his brain is supposed to have been the cause of his death.

Spanish Minister of War
Gives His Ideas of Peace
Conditions

AS TO PORTO RICO

He Thinks Spain Should Retain It at All
Hazard and Is Certain She Will Retain the Philippines—Citizens of Barcelona Panic Stricken Over the Possibility of the City Being Bombarded by Watson.
British Weekly Press on the Fall of Santiago.

Madrid, July 16.—The Minister of War General Corea is quoted in an interview yesterday as saying peace might
be restored on the following terms:
"The United States and Spain to agree to let the Cubans decide by a plebiscite whether they desire independence or autonomy under the sovereignty of Spain.

"The two governments to abide by
the result of the plebiscite.
"In the event of the Cubans voting for independence, the United States to allow Spain nine months in which to withdraw her army, gradually and dig-nifiedly from Cuba, as soldiers should
after having fought like heroes."

Continuing, the minister of war said:
"We ought to retain Porto Rico at all costs, in order to be always near Cuba,
of which the Americans will be able to despoil us in course of time, and in order to more easily communicate with the South American republics, which daily display the greatest enthusiasm
for Spain.

"As to the Philippine islands, it is certain we will retain them even though the Americans succeed in occupying Manila, of which place their occupation
will be most brief. An official dispatch announces that the rebel chiefs and the Americans will not always agree, which is to Spain's advantage.

"The government has formed a scheme
which will not only assure Spain the possession of the Philippine islands, but which will re-establish tranquility."

WERE DISAPPOINTED.

Spanish Hoped Yellow Fever In Our Ranks Would Save Santiago.

London, July 16.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times says: The news
of the capitulation of Santiago was received too late for comment by the morning papers. It caused disappointment because it was hoped, that although General Toral was in a desperate condition, the spread of yellow fever might in a few days have compelled the Americans to raise the siege and retire.

Official information regarding the conditions of surrender is anxiously awaited.
Regarding the prospects of peace
Senator Sagasta interviewed by a representative of El Correo says: "It is certain, most certain, that the government has endeavored to ascertain extra officially the disposition of the Washington cabinet respecting a pacific solution, but for the moment I can say absolutely nothing
because the enemy might wrongly suppose that we desired peace at any price
and accordingly show himself more exacting. I have read the proposals cabled to El Imparcial, which are supposed to have been communicated by President McKinley to M. Gambon, the French ambassador at Washington.

These conditions are so hard that I considered them inadmissible. The government has news of other proposals
that are much more acceptable."

ARE PLEASED.

British Weekly Press Expresses Satisfaction Over the Fall of Santiago.

London, July 16.—The weekly papers
express great satisfaction over the fall
of Santiago de Cuba. The Speaker
thinks the event presages the end of the war, but describes it as "a stroke of good fortune which the Americans had no right to expect."

It adds: "The terms of surrender are not dishonorable. They reflect credit upon both sides."

The Saturday Review explains its
change of attitude in favor of America
and declares its original antagonism
was prompted by America's aggressive
humor, while its present attitude is a somewhat tardy but ungrudging admission of American courage and humanity. The paper proceeds in terms of high praise of the United States along the lines of its article of a week ago.

PANIC STRICKEN.

Citizens of Barcelona Fear an American Bombardment.

London, July 16.—It was announced
in a special from Barcelona yesterday afternoon that the inhabitants of that city
are panic stricken. They believe the Americans will select defenseless Barcelona as the first point to bombard. The local banks are removing their specie

to the country, the merchants are sending their goods to places of safety and many of the citizens are leaving.

The governor of Barcelona has informed the people that they cannot expect help from the government.

Italy Will Send Cruisers to Gibraltar.
Rome, July 16.—It is asserted in the local journal that in the event of fighting between the United States and the coast of Spain, the Italian cruisers Dogali and Piemonte will be sent to Gibraltar.

Spanish War Loan.
Madrid, July 16.—The bank of Spain
has opened subscriptions for treasury bonds. Already 23,000,000 pesetas have been taken.

PRIZE HORSE DEAD.

Rowena, Who Took First Prize at the Chicago Show.

Harrodsburg, Ky., July 16.—The beautiful prize pet saddle mare Rowena,
valued at $1,200, the property of Miss Alice, daughter of Colonel J. B. Castle-
man, is dead at Castleman place, "Clifton," in this county. She was used for saddle and driving purposes by Miss Castleman. She was a solid black, very graceful, and finely formed and took
the first prize as the best lady's saddle
mare at the Chicago horse show in 1897.
When very ill the intelligent animal
struggled to her feet, and went round
to each member of the anxious company
and told them goodby in animal fashion,
as she had been trained to do, and died
in two minutes thereafter.

M'COY AND CORBETT.

Articles of Agreement For a Twenty Round Contest Signed.

New York, July 16.—Articles of agreement which will govern a 20-round
glove contest between James J. Corbett and Kid McCoy were signed at Con-sidine's hotel by representatives of both pugilists yesterday afternoon.

According to the agreement the men
will fight for a purse of $20,000, winner
to take all, before the Hawthorne Athletic club of Buffalo on the afternoon of Sept. 10. Both men have commenced training.

BLANCO NOW WILLING

To Let the Decision of Peace or War
Rest With Madrid.

London, July 16.—All the dispatches
from Madrid to the London morning
papers agree that Captain General Blanco and his staff are now willing to let the decision as to peace or war rest
with the home government. This change in their attitude is supposed to be due to the lack of provisions and equipment. The Times commenting editorially this morning on the reported
statement of Lieutenant General Correa, the Spanish minister of war, as to the terms upon which he thought peace
might be arranged, says it is afraid that none of the terms General Correa suggests has any chance of acceptance at Washington.

"It will be realized at Washington
that the chance of getting a money indemnify is extremely remote, and as a business transaction, the Americans will probably take any indemnity they think proper in the form of territory, should any of the colonies be left in Spanish
possession at the conclusion of peace."

GENERAL TORAL

Believed to Be Having Difficulty in Surrendering All His Command.

Washington, July 16.—The unusual delay which has puzzled the war officials, is accounted for by the difficulties
which General Toral is having in surrendering that force under his command which is not in the city of Santiago. General Shafter estimates that there are from 12,000 to 15,000 in Santiago and nearly as many more in the province outside the city. It is believed that the delay in the negotiations is made necessary in order to secure the surrender of the outlying garrisons,
some of which may question Toral's authority to surrender them, without definite instructions to that effect from Madrid.

OFF FOR MANILA.

Fourth Expedition Sailed Last Evening
From San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 16.—The fourth Manila expedition is under way. Late yesterday afternoon Major General Otis
from his flagship, the City of Puebla,
signalled the transport Peru to get under way. The signals were understood by the anxious watchers on shore and
by those who had surrounded the two vessels in small boats and were received
with great cheering.

As the two vessels got under way the cheering increased in volume and to the accompaniment of hundreds of steam whistles and the firing of bombs and cannon, the two vessels proceeded slowly down the bay, past the water front
and out to sea.

Was Not Mentioned in the Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, July 16.—The subject of peace was not mentioned at the meeting
yesterday, and it can be authoritatively
stated that the president has not received an intimation from any officers
or even semi-official source that Spain
desires peace upon any terms that could be entertained by the United States.
One prominent member of the cabinet
said that Spain was rapidly losing ground by not seeking to make terms,
and added that "she seemed to have no
ability to make war or capacity to make
peace."

Royal makes the food pure,

BRADSTREET.

Conditions Said to Be Favorable to the Business World.

New York, July 16.—Bradstreet's today says: Pending the initiation of new fall business, preparations for which are actively under way in all markets, there exists a quiet midsummer condition, accompanied, however, in most cases, by price steadiness and confidence in a promising outlook for fall trade. Retrospection and review continue to furnish many satisfactory illustrations of the favorable conditions experienced during the first half the present year, some of which seem bound to be duplicated during the second half. While there seems little reason to expect anything like the excited foreign buying of cereals this year which occurred last season, the world's wheat crops all pointing to exceptionally large if not record breaking yields, still the situation of carried over supplies, visible and invisible, is such as to lead to confidence in a good, general
demand for most of this country's surplus, though the outlook favors a considerable shading of prices obtained
from such products.

Seattle, Wash., July 16.—A private

Republican State Convention.

The Indiana Republican State Convention will be held at Tomlinson Hall in Indianapolis on Wednesday and Thursday, August 3d and 4th, 1898. The convention will be composed of 1616 delegates, and promises to be one of the most interesting and enthusiastic conventions ever held in the State.

RAILROAD RATES.

Arrangements have been made with all railroads in Indiana for special rates to the Convention particulars of which will be announced later.

COL. GEORGE E. STONE, of California, has been chosen president of the Republican National League.

SENATOR H. Q. HORTON has been nominated for judge of the Daviess and Martin circuit by the republicans.

MONROE county is getting some unenviable advertisement out of the recent appearance of white caps over there.

GENERAL TORAL would better not trifle with General Shafter. He had just as well accept the original conditions of the surrender of Santiago at once and pack his grip.

THE Greensburg New Era, the policy of which is yet controlled by Allen W. Clark, has some unkind things to say about one Thomas Taggart, the boss and promises opposition to the boss ambitious to be governor of Indiana.

GOVERNOR MOUNT said last night that the total war claims paid so far have amounted to about $150,000. If the claims were audited they would aggregate about $100,000 more. Nevertheless the state has paid $200,000 on the bonded debt.

ALL of the reports agree that the appetites of the Spanish prisoners are excellent. It is doubtless pleasant to them to again, after many months, make the acquaintance of a menu that does not include horseflesh and other such delicacies.

THE Fourth district committeemen acted wisely in selecting Seymour as the place of holding the congressional convention. No other city in the district has better railroad facilities or better accommodations generally than Seymour. The delegates can get here without inconvenience and we are prepared to take care of them properly after they get here. Seymour is a first-class convention town. We want a large crowd August 18.

IT was to be expected that ex-President Harrison would approve the annexation of Hawaii. He signed the treaty of annexation in the closing days of his administration which Mr. Cleveland withdrew from the Senate. In expressing his hearty approval of the measure General Harrison says: "In my opinion, it necessitates the construction of the Nicaraguan canal. While there was a need of this canal before, it now becomes imperative." This is true, and the acquisition by the United States of Porto Rico will make the canal doubly imperative.—Journal.

A great many democratic papers over the state have found serious fault with the supreme court because of the recent decision in the case of the law extending the offices of the township trustees and assessors. At first they seemed to be unmindful of the fact that their criticism was involving Judge McCabe, one of their own brethren who has been renominated. But since they have been given full information as to that they have much less to say about the decision, some of them even apologizing for what they said.

THOMAS HANNA, ex-lieutenant governor of Indiana, is announced as a republican candidate for attorney-general. The only other candidate announced for that same office is W. L. Taylor, of Indianapolis. Both of these gentlemen have many acquaintances in Jackson county.

Knows Montgomery.

Our old friend, Oscar H. Montgomery, of Seymour, will be a candidate for supreme judge, before the republican state convention. He is a graduate of Hanover college and is a brilliant man. From the humble position of a country school teacher he has risen by his own energy and force of intellect to a place of honor and distinction. He was a delegate to the National convention at St. Louis, and has been an active worker for the best interests of the republican party.

Mr. Montgomery is a native of Jackson county. He served for ten years as city attorney of Seymour, and he acted as a special judge in a number of cases. His scholarship and recognized legal knowledge thoroughly qualify him for Supreme Judge, while his labors for the good of the republican party entitle him to the nomination which he seeks. If nominated his great popularity will make his election doubly sure.—Vincennes Commercial.

GRAVE OF PATRICK HENRY.

Every now and then we see in some newspaper the query, "Where is Patrick Henry buried?" and tourists in Richmond constantly ask to be shown his grave, with the mistaken idea that it is in that city, where much of his public career was passed. Few people comparatively know that the man who acquired the title of "The Tongue of the Revolution" lies in a quiet grave on the estate in Charlotte county where he formerly lived. Over it is a marble slab inscribed with one line, "His fame his best epitaph."

The estate lies on Staunton river, 38 miles from the town of Lynchburg, near the border line which separates Charlotte and Campbell counties. It derived its name of Red Hill from the peculiar color of the soil in that vicinity. When Patrick Henry bought the place, it comprised about 3,500 acres. The land is rich—there was a saying in the neighborhood that poor land and Henry could never be mentioned together—corn grows there as high as a man on horseback; there is a general air of smiling fields and abundant prosperity. Its situation in early times was very remote. Neighbors were few, one of the nearest being the celebrated John Randolph of Roanoke, who lived in his chosen solitude 15 miles away.

Red Hill is now owned by Henry's grandson, William Wirt Henry, a clever, cultivated gentleman of the "old school." He has in his possession some most interesting relics of his celebrated grandfather, including the desk he always used, which still contains his letters from Lafayette, Washington, Madison and other great men of early days; the large, round backed chair in which Patrick Henry died and a portrait of him by the elder Sully, paper, signed by Chief Justice John Marshall and several others of his friends, testifying to the faithfulness of the likeness.—Philadelphia Press.

If She Were a Man.

"Oh," she suddenly exclaimed, "I wish I were a man."
"What would you do?" he asked.
"I'll not say what I would do, but there is one thing I will confess that I wouldn't do."
"And that is?"
"I wouldn't sit around as if I had handcuffs on when I happened to be alone with a girl."—Cleveland Leader.

A SPANISH BRAVADO.

A Striking Description of the Daring and Courage Displayed by the Retired General Who Would Not Permit an Englishman to Outdo Him.

The realistic Spanish novelist, Valdes, in one of his most popular stories ("Sister San Sulpicio," translated by Nathan Haskell Dole) gives a description of a retired Spanish general's afternoon out which will illuminate many chivalric incidents in Spanish life and apply illustrations of the reckless daring and courage of which the average Englishman is liberally possessed. The scene is a sort of picnic grounds in the outskirts of Seville.

"Medicine the animation had been on the increase among the ruffians. The period of unmanly action had come. One of them climbed upon the table to make a speech, and the others, by way of applause, threw sherry and manzanilla in his face. Another was trying to lift with his teeth a companion whose drunkenness had stretched out on the floor. He did not succeed. He merely tore his sack coat. Still others were committing absurd and extravagant actions, making a great noise and uproar. "The count remained grave and silent, drinking one glass of sherry after another. But his eyes were no longer, as usual, incomprehensible and unfathomable like those of a man tired of life. Though he did not speak or move about he seemed a different man.

"The Englishman had taken off his jacket and waistcoat, and rolling up his shirt sleeves, was exhibiting his biceps, which were really powerful, and trying to break empty bottles on his arm. Once blood had come, but he went on breaking the bottles without paying any attention to it. Then he asked the waiter to bring a bottle of rum and a large glass. He filled this to the brim with the liquor, and then slowly, without moving a muscle or even winking, he drained it to the bottom. Then he sat down at the table opposite the count and said solemnly:

"A flash of fury gleamed through the hardened nobleman's eyes, but he succeeded in restraining himself, and, turning the rest of the bottle into the glass, he calmly ordered the waiter to bring him some pepper. He threw in a pinch of it, then threw into it his cigar ashes heaped up before him, and, without saying a word, with the same scornful, contemptuous smile, drained the glass, and, not content with that, bit it in pieces. We saw his lips spotted with blood. The company received with oles and shouts of triumph this proof of an unimpaired stomach, in which it seemed as though the national honor were concerned.

"Our neighbors in the other booths must have reached the same happy grade of temperature, for nothing was heard but exultant shouts, the crashing of glasses, coarse laughter and swearing.

"The count was not yet satisfied with his victory over the Englishman. While he was swallowing with apparent calmness the glasses of liquor which were offered to him he did not cease to devour him with his eyes, carried away by a dull madness, which soon broke out. His eyes, which were the only part of his impassive face that moved, gleamed more and more furiously, like those of a madman when a stratagem has been put on him. The Englishman continued to boast of his strength. He was now thoroughly intoxicated and talking impudently enough to the others, who were not so drunk.

"So you are very valiant, are you?" asked the count, still smiling disdainfully.

"More than you," retorted the Englishman.

"Don't start to spring at him, but the others restrained him. Soon calming himself, he said:

"If you are so brave, why not put your hand on the table?"

"What for?"

"To pin it down with mine."

"The Englishman, without an instant's hesitation, stretched out his huge, brawny hand. The count took out of his pocket a damasked dagger and laid his delicate, gentlemanly hand on the Englishman's, and without hesitation and with a ferocious grip he raised the point with the other and drove it through both the table."

"The women uttered a cry of terror. All of us men ran to their assistance. A few left the place in search of help. In an instant our booth was filled with blood. From the wounds great drops of blood streamed, staining the handkerchiefs which we applied to them.

"A doctor who happened to be among the bystanders dressed the wounds provisionally with the few means at his disposal. The count smiled while they were dressing his hand. The Englishman was as sick as a horse and vomiting. Soon the count was doing the game, and both were taken to such rooms as the establishment had to offer and went to bed. Every one left, commenting on the barbarism of the deed."

Hospital Train.—The hospital train, bearing 90 privates, reached Fort McPherson last night. About half the men are wounded and the others are ill of typhoid fever. A number of the men were unconscious when taken from the train, and the doctors say there are several who will not recover. Only those whose cases were most serious were taken off here and the train started for Fort Thomas, Ky.

Martial law has been declared
throughout Spain. It is conjectured
that this is a precaution to prevent out-
breaks when the government proposes
peace.

Capt. Gen. Blanco is said to be more firmly set against peace than ever. In
an interview yesterday he declared that
if he could prevent it there would be no
peace between Spain and the United States on the basis of Cuba passing
from Spanish control. He favors waging incessant warfare against the United States.

Still other changes may be made in the make-up of the Eastern squadron. Owing to the fulness of the bottoms of the Iowa and Indiana, both
may remain in West Indian waters and
the fighting companion of the Oregon
may be the Texas or the Brooklyn.

Barcelona is panic-stricken, expecting an American squadron to appear at any minute and open fire. The tanks are removing their specie and merchants their goods to safe places in the country.

the city today from Baltimore.
Roadmaster Thomas Welsh of the

The Pennsylvania has a novel suit on hand. James Ross has sued the com-

ceived when walking along the com-

of it struck Ross in the face.

Out Your Weeds.
There are many vacant lots in the city
on which weeds have grown to enormous size. The owners of these lots should have these weeds cut at once, in accordance with an ordinance passed long ago by the city council. These growing weeds are detrimental to health
and detract from the appearance of the city. Just as well cut these weeds before ordered to do so.

When the volunteers from Paoli, Kan., left for San Francisco there was the usual good-by scene at the station with some variations. They lined up on the platform, the girls marching down the line and distributing farewell kisses.
Not until the oculatory process was
all over, however, was it discovered that the entire Missouri Pacific freight
crew were lined up with the soldiers,
each railroader trying to look sorry
over his pretended departure, but really enjoying it more than a dog fight. The fireman was the only man who missed a share of the kisses intended for the soldiers.

from Sept. 25 to Oct. 1 inclusive.
The number of stages and performers
will be increased over the number en-

Ed. Lowhead, of Louisville, a tanner by occupation who worked for Mooney & Sons at Columbus, Ind., has been missing since Saturday last, and his wife, who is at Scottsburg, Ind., fears that he has met with foul play. Lowhead was arranging to engage in the poultry business at Scottsburg.

Two attractive pages of Harper's Bazar for July 16 are devoted to reproductions of photographs of the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs recently held in Denver, and the accompanying description by Margaret Hamilton Welch, who represented the Bazar at the Biennial, is comprehensive and interesting.

Every time a live merchant drops out of a newspaper the general public immediately thinks the "bargains" at that place are all gone and they look for something else. The people look in newspapers for bargains and they do right, and the merchant who is up-to-date will never stop even for one week inviting the people to trade with him.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C. W. Milhous.

War Revenue Bonds.

The amount subscribed for the $200,000,000 of government bonds amounted to about $1,200,000,000. The individual subscriptions exceed the amount of bonds offered, and all subscriptions of firms, corporations and syndicates, will be returned at once.

The merchant who does not have a care for the appearance of his printed matter unwittingly exposes his carelessness to his customers. The public is quick to observe the difference between clean, artistic printing and smeared, untidy productions of the novice and places its estimates upon the person using the latter as slovenly. The REPUBLICAN employs the best mechanical skill, and having the best facilities, the highest grade of printing. Is this the kind of printing you are looking for?

Waldron, Ind., July 16.—While a traveling show was performing in the village and Frank Baldwin one of the attaches was collecting gate money, John McCormick of Connelville, who claimed that Baldwin had stolen his wife, made a rush with his knife plunging it to the hilt in Baldwin's left side. The injury is fatal. When Baldwin staggered and fell Mrs. McCormick rushed out of a dressing room partly clothed and screaming with fury, while she held a revolver in each hand. HOW A WOUND HEALS.

When the Blood is Pure a Wound Heals Quickly. The Fact Demonstrated in the Case of a Baptist Clergyman of Ashley, Ohio.

From the Times, Ashley, Ohio.

Elder A. S. Shoemaker has been a long resident of Ashley, Ohio, and is favorably known by a wide circle of friends in this part of the state. For many years he has been Mayor of Ashley for three successive terms, filling the position with dignity and honor, and has held other offices of trust.

He is sixty-six years of age, hale and hearty, and attributes his present healthful condition entirely to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

I tried a great many remedies that were recommended, but they did not help me."

"One day while at work and complaining of my pain in the presence of Mr. Elias Bishop, a neighbor, he asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I told him no. I replied, that I had no faith in any medicine as I had tried so many different remedies without receiving any benefit that I did not think it worth while to throw away more money.

"Time passed on for nearly a year until one night I was suffering intense pain and I thought of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and concluded to try them. In the morning I went to the drug store and purchased a box of the pills and commenced using them according to directions.

"It was the wisest thing I ever did. On the third night after commencing their use I went to bed and slept all night without a particle of pain. I continued taking the pills until I used five boxes and have not felt any symptoms of my old trouble since that time, now two years ago."

"Just after I stopped the use of the pills I met
